Q.1. Discuss the types and placement of flower arrangement for the following areas in a five star hotel:
   (a) Lobby  (b) Conference room

   OR

   Explain the principles of design used in preparing floral art.

Q.2. What factors would you keep in mind while designing uniforms for the hotel staff?

   OR

   Design a uniform for a G.R.A. (male) in business class five star hotel mentioning the colour, material, accessories, cost and characteristic.

Q.3. Explain the process of maintaining and up-keeping of indoor plants in hotels.

   OR

   Write short notes on the following:
   (a) Activities carried out in the sewing room.
   (b) Importance of indoor plants in hotel industry.

Q.4. With the help of a flowchart and relevant format, explain the role of Valet/G.R.A. in handling of guest laundry.

   OR

   How would you remove the following stain from a white cotton fabric?
   (a) Lipstick stain  (b) Curry stain

Q.5. Draw a neat layout of OPL in a five star hotel and list its advantages.
Q.6. Explain the stages involved in wash cycle.

Q.7. List ten flower and ten foliages names used in floral art.

OR
Briefly explain any five laundry equipment.

Q.8. As an Executive housekeeper of a five star hotel, plan a room linen inventory process. Mention the significance of the process.

Q.9. Match the following:
(a) Foyer  (i) A plant in a tray
(b) Greek oblong  (ii) Linen
(c) Bonsai  (iii) Blended fabric of cotton and polyester (50:50)
(d) Flax plant  (iv) Sheets with minor imperfection
(e) Percale  (v) Chef coat
(f) Seconds  (vi) Discarded fabric
(g) Togs  (vii) Seam stress
(h) Gabardine  (viii) Unit to measure warmth of fabric
(i) Cut downs  (ix) Golden ratio 2:3
(j) Thimbles  (x) Lobby

Q.10. Fill in the blanks:
(a) Plant material used to hide stem and oasis __________.
(b) A reweaving process to repair small holes in a fabric __________.
(c) __________ are used on garments and other linen articles mainly to keep plackets closed.
(d) Process in which cleaning of fabric is done in substantially non aqueous liquid medium __________.
(e) __________ indicates the number of warp ends and weft picks per unit measure of a fabric.
(f) Textile used for furniture décor is __________.
(g) __________ refers to the preparation of cut plant materials for a longer life.
(h) A floating oriental flower arrangement is __________.
(i) Pin holder used in flower arrangement is called __________.
(j) Fabrics that come straight from the loom without having received any finishing are called __________.

(10x1=10)
********